

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

- $200-$250,000 plus Benefits
- ASX Listed Business
- 12 Month Contract

Tracing its origins back to the late 1980's this Group enjoyed revenues of approximately $1bn in the last Financial Year and have a market capitalisation of around $100m. Their success to date can be attributed to a hands-on leadership group, product innovation, fiercely protected Intellectual Property and a commitment to customer satisfaction. The Group has been recognised formally as being one of the fastest growing companies operating in both Australia and Asia-Pacific.

Reporting to the CEO, the CFO will work closely with Board colleagues to:

- Take full responsibility for all aspects of financial control, monitoring and interpreting the performance of the business, recommending and implementing change where appropriate
- Develop financial systems ensuring they can support the development and direction of the business
- Manage, motivate and develop the finance and administration team

In addition the role will assume responsibility for corporate governance, asset management, and strategic business planning, working capital and cost management.

Highly developed interpersonal and communication skills, the ability to inspire confidence and lead by example are key to success in this role.

Key attributes will include the flexibility to thrive in a dynamic and entrepreneurial environment whilst retaining the discipline and procedures that are vital in an ASX listed business.
