

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

- Emerging ASX Listed Group
- $180-220,000 plus benefits
- Melbourne

In the last 12 months this ASX listed business has undergone a complete transformation under the direction of a newly appointed MD. A comprehensive review of operations has resulted in a two non-core businesses being divested with the proceeds to be used to fund strategic acquisitions.

This role therefore materialises as an exciting and challenging time in the Group's development. This role will be the confidante, devil's advocate and wise counsel to the MD and Executive Team.

Responsible for a finance team of 8 the role will ensure that the Group has appropriate financial, accounting and administrative processes in place and keeps pace with and supports the growth of the Group.

As to be expected of a role of this nature the responsibilities will be wide-ranging and diverse to include;

- Corporate Governance
- Act as the focal point for external auditors and advisors
- Cash management including liaison with the banks
- Strategic Business Planning

As a listed entity the CFO will also ensure that all ASX listing rules and reporting requirements are strictly adhered to.

Key attributes will include the ability to manage, motivate and develop the finance and administration team and the flexibility to thrive in an entrepreneurial environment whilst at all times remaining aware of the bigger picture.

Excellent communication skills and the ability to inspire confidence and lead by example are key to success in this role. This role will appeal to those individuals who have gained experience in a listed Group and are ready to step up to a CFO role in a truly dynamic and entrepreneurial culture.
