

GENERAL MANAGER - OPERATIONS

- Location: Melbourne
- Salary $180,000
- National Leadership Role

With a market capitalisation approaching $3 billion, this international business services group employs over 5000 staff worldwide. With revenues in excess of $750 million, the key to the company's success to date has been exceptional service delivery to its prestigious client base.

Reporting to the MD, this is a national leadership role managing a large number of staff across five offices. Forming part of the senior management team, it is the most senior position in the Melbourne office.

Responsibilities will be varied and diverse, but will most certainly focus on the following:

- Contributing directly to strategic initiatives and planning
- Developing team members and ensuring succession plans are in place
- Maximising profit and implementing cost minimisation programs
- Developing relationships with clients

The successful candidate will have a proven track record of leadership and achieving results in a large, service-focused organisation. The position requires a professional with proven strategic and operational management skills, team building abilities and a style conducive to driving the business forward.

The ability to forge relationships both internally and externally is crucial to this role. Excellent communication skills, the ability to think "outside the square" and strong personal and business ethics will ensure success.
