

MAINTENANCE MANAGER

- $70-75,000 + super + accommodation + vehicle
- Career Development Opportunity
- Bombala, NSW based

In a little over 25 years this business has become the market leader in its field. Listed on the ASX in late 2000 it has a track record of uninterrupted Revenue and Profit Growth. The Group has taken advantage of a variety of business opportunities including acquisitions. Recent strategic initiatives have seen the business emerge as one of the few truly integrated organizations operating in its sector.

The key to its success to date has been a talented and innovative management team and an ability to anticipate change in the main areas of operation.

This opportunity has arisen in one of its key subsidiaries. This operation processes and supplies high quality landscape products to the Australian markets and is entering an exciting new growth phase incorporating major capital developments.

Reporting to the GM Operations this role therefore has arisen at an interesting and exciting time. This role requires an experienced and proactive Maintenance Manager who can build upon the current performance levels and lift these even higher. This role will be a key member of the site management team.

The successful candidate will already possess a trade qualification and have a proven background in performing scheduled and preventative mechanical maintenance with a predictive approach ensuring the maintenance of plant and machinery is carried out both efficiently and cost effectively.

The role will work closely with production staff and safety personnel to manage the site maintenance requirements at all times being adhering to the strict OH&S procedures already established. The ability to manage and motivate the maintenance team and external contractors is essential in this position.

The successful candidate will have excellent communication skills and be able to manage, motivate and mentor on site staff. Sector experience is unimportant the right attitude is.

In addition to a highly competitive base salary there is a comprehensive benefits package which includes superannuation, accommodation, company vehicle and relocation expenses.
